

MOMENTS

We dedicated this Cocktail Card to the bright moments of man and nature unity – the moments that we are often longing for.

Each cocktail takes you on a journey through memories drawn by tastes, aromas and sensations.

Green wine★

A cocktail reminiscent of a garden after a summer rain: wet greenery, cool air and the aroma of freshly cut kiwi. Bright apple liqueur opens with juicy fruit notes, tequila adds warm depth, while sparkling tonic lingers like raindrops on your skin on a cool evening after a thunderstorm.

Benois house☆

This cocktail is like an architectural masterpiece: on the outside, the elegant restraint of St. Petersburg gin; inside, the rich flavor of ripe melon, like a stained-glass window in the Benois style. A subtle hint of green apple evokes the hidden gardens of St. Petersburg tucked behind historic facades, while dry tonic brings a sharp edge, like a gust of wind from the Neva River.

Golden sunbeam☆

A vibrant blend, like a warm morning.
Elderflower brings a floral sweetness,
grapefruit and lemon awaken with crisp freshness,
while vodka and non-alcoholic sparkling wine
add a touch of elegance. A true drop of sunlight in your glass.

A walk through the orangery★

Spiced gin with pineapple and cinnamon, bright lemon notes and the tropical sweetness of agave come together to evoke the feeling of a long walk beneath the glass roof of an orangery on a gloomy day. A delicate bitterness from Campari recalls exotic wonders once brought to the northern capital, while silky egg white foam softens the contrasts, creating a cozy little world where summer never ends.

Dandelion wine☆

A bottle of preserved sunlight – the kind sipped through long winters to warm the soul. At its heart lies a comforting infusion of rooibos, chamomile and honey, like a meadow day captured in a glass. The refined bitterness of sherry and the crisp austerity of dry vermouth bring depth and complexity, while a touch of lemon zest lingers at the finish like a bright flash of a moment suddenly brought back to life.

Ten sotkas[☆]

A refreshing hint of gooseberry tartness and a bright spark of lemon create a perfect flavour harmony. Vodka, Tarragon liqueur, and Prosecco bring a light, playful fizz. Fresh basil – like a leaf that happened to fall into the glass from a branch – completes this moment of carefree summer.
